Meetings & Conferences

Our outstanding facilities and one-stop event and conference services are flexible, budget-friendly, and accommodating. Whether you're planning a meeting, corporate retreat, or a multi-day conference, this getaway from the office will allow your team to connect, focus, and brainstorm in a self-contained environment.

Overnight

Endicott's campus presents unique opportunities for a variety of uses, such as seminars, sport camps, retreats, music and dance groups, high school or college programs, and more.

Choose from an array of affordable housing options, from traditional residence halls to suite/apartment or hotel-style spaces—available from June to mid-August.

Accommodations are centrally located and within walking distance to meeting facilities, athletic fields, and dining locations, as well as outdoor areas for recreation or relaxation, woodland walking trails, and three private beaches.

Overnight guests can enjoy a variety of meal choices in our food court-style dining hall, as well as customizable catering options for private events.

Youth Programs

Our on-campus facilities provide opportunities for programs in leadership, visual and performing arts, sport camps and clinics, and academics. From athletic fields to science labs, positive youth development can be achieved in a safe and fun environment. Our convenient location makes traveling to Boston, Salem, Gloucester, and other North Shore destinations easy for off-site excursions and field trips.

Weddings & Social Events

The moment you and your guests enter the charming Misselwood Estate, you will be enchanted by our picturesque grounds overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. This venue is ideal for celebrating life's milestones or bringing a team together to recognize achievements.

Endicott's main campus also offers unique venues for a variety of social gatherings, including a wooden post and beam lodge, complete with indoor and outdoor fire pits, the modern style sports pub, Gully's, and multipurpose seminar and community spaces. Our event professionals can help you choose the best fit for your memorable event!

Misselwood Concours d'Elegance

The Misselwood Estate has become home to an annual display of stunning automobiles and motorcycles from across the country. This premier summer event is perfect for the entire family, as guests can enjoy live music, food trucks, fashion shows, art, test drives, and an elegant VIP pavilion. Adding to the allure of this event is its purpose—to raise funds for Endicott student scholarships. Join us for a great cause the third weekend in July each year!

Event Series

Join us as we host a variety of events that include music, yoga, entertainment and more. The Misselwood Music Series hosts award-winning talent while guests enjoy signature cocktails, eats from local food trucks, and ocean views.
